How can I discover content through browse?

You can browse content by type: journals, books, case studies and Expert Briefings.

1. Select 'Browse our content' at the top of the page and choose your content type.

Browse journals and books

emerald.com/insight/browse/publications

The journal and book browse area combines all journals and book volumes. The page will automatically default to display all content in alphabetical order.

Journal and book browse - filter & search within

1. Search for journals and books by entering names of specific titles or words which may appear in the title name.
2. Quickly see the number of titles available to browse.
3. Applied filters can be cleared individually or select 'Clear all'.
4. Select the title name or button to view all content within each journal or book.
5. Refine content according to the name of the title using the A-Z filter.
6. Refine content by subject focus using the three-tier hierarchy of subject filters. The 'Subjects' drop down shows broad subject disciplines, and the 'Subcategories' cover specific fields within each subject.
7. Refine by publication type by selecting 'Journals' or 'Books'.
8. Subject categories are attached to each title and so filters can be selected here also.

Journal table of content (TOC) page

1. After you are signed into your user Profile, you can subscribe to content (email) alerts for your chosen journal title.
2. Set up RSS feeds for your chosen journal from this page.
3. Enter words or phrases to search for content within this journal.
4. View EarlyCite content (pre-print publication).
5. Open Access issues are identified by the padlock symbol.
6. The journal TOC page displays all volume and issue content in date order.
7. Special Issues are highlighted in the list of issues for each volume.
8. Publication information (ISSN, earliest content date, OpenAccess status, Editors and links to more information) can be found on the right side of the page.

The screenshot shows the 'British Food Journal' table of contents page. It includes a search bar, navigation tabs for 'All Issues' and 'EarlyCite', and a list of issues for Volume 123 and Volume 122. On the right, there is a sidebar with journal metadata and editor information. Numbered callouts (1-8) point to specific elements: 1. 'Subscribe to table of contents alerts' button; 2. 'RSS feed' button; 3. Search input field; 4. 'EarlyCite' tab; 5. Padlock icon next to 'Issue 13 2021'; 6. Volume 122 header; 7. Special issue title 'The Future of Food: Emerging Trends in Food Science and Nutrition'; 8. Metadata sidebar.

7. From the series and serial homepage, you can easily access all volumes, starting with the most recent.
8. Select 'Recent chapters' tab for quick access to the latest chapters published.
9. After you are signed into your user profile, you can subscribe to content (email) alerts for your chosen book series title.
10. Publication information (DOI, ISSN, earliest online content date and editors) can be found on the right side of the page.

The screenshot shows the 'Advances in Econometrics' series page. At the top, there are two tabs: 'All Books' and 'Recent Chapters', with the latter selected and marked with a red circle 8. Below the tabs, it says 'All books in this series (33 titles)'. A grid of book covers is displayed, with a red box 7 highlighting the first two books in the grid. On the right side, there is a 'Subscribe to table of contents alerts' button with a red circle 9. Below the button, a sidebar contains publication information including DOI (10.1108/ins), Editors (Juan Carlos Gonzalez, Thomas W. Fomby, R. Carter Hill, Eric Hurn, David Jacho-Chavez, Jean Joflicko, Daniel Williams, Alicia Rambold, Rodney Strachan), Series Copyright Holder (Emerald Publishing Limited), Online start date (1999), and Print ISSN (0763-458X). A red circle 10 points to the 'Series Copyright Holder' information.

Browse case studies

emerald.com/insight/content/case-studies

You can browse all case studies content in one place or according to their collection. In both instances, you can apply various filters to refine results.

Browse all case studies - filter and search within

1. Select 'View all case studies' to view all available case content in date order (newest first).

Welcome to Emerald case studies

Global teaching materials to engage and inspire

Teaching cases offer students the opportunity to explore real world challenges in the classroom environment, allowing them to test their assumptions and decision-making skills before taking their knowledge into the workplace. 100% of cases accepted by Emerald into Emerging Markets Case Studies (EMCS) or The CASE Journal (TCJ) have teaching notes, which are rigorously reviewed to ensure their learning objectives facilitate dynamic classroom discussion and help faculty plan how best to use the case.

1. Show – If you are properly authenticated, you can choose to see only the content you have access to. If you are faculty staff and would like to use teaching notes, you can filter on cases with teaching notes.
2. Case length – Refine results by case study length.
3. Subject – You can restrict results according to the subject focus. Multiple selections can be made.
4. Country – this will display the regional focus of the content.
5. Language – You can choose to view only Spanish case studies.
6. Date – This will allow you to quickly view the most recent content by selecting months, but also restrict content by year.
7. Case provider – View content according to the collection.
8. Search for case studies by entering words or phrases into the search box.

The screenshot displays the filter and search interface for Emerald Insight case studies. It features several filter panels and a search box, each highlighted with a numbered callout:

- 1. Show: A panel with two checkboxes: "Only content I have access to" and "Only show cases with teaching notes".
- 2. Case length: A panel with radio button options for "Under 1,000 words", "1,000 - 3,000 words", "3,000 - 6,000 words", and "Over 6,000 words".
- 3. Subject: A panel with a list of subjects: "Accounting and Finance", "Built Environment", and "Entrepreneurship".
- 4. Country: A panel with an alphabetical index (A-Z) and a dropdown menu currently set to "All countries".
- 5. Language: A panel with radio button options for "English" and "Spanish".
- 6. Date: A panel with radio button options for "Last 3 months", "Last 6 months", and "Last 12 months", along with "From Year" and "To Year" fields and a "Go" button.
- 7. After selecting the button to view all Expert Briefings, you can then refine the content by using the filters on the right side of the page.

1. Access – As long as you are authenticated, you can restrict the content displayed to only what you have access to.
2. Year – Refine by date published.
3. Content type – Restrict results according to the type of briefing.
4. Country – You can choose a country from the A-Z list to filter on the regional focus of the content.

The screenshot shows a search results page for 'Search results 1 - 10 of over 33000'. The page includes a search bar, a 'Per page' dropdown set to 10, and a 'Sorted by most recent' dropdown. Below the search bar are two search results cards. The first card is for 'Belarus raises stakes with Poland with little to gain' and the second is for 'Brazil's Bolsonaro to join Liberal Party pre-election'. On the right side of the page, there are four filter sections, each with a red circle and a number: 1. Access (with options for 'Only content I have access to' and 'Only Open Access'), 2. Year (with a list of time periods and a date range selector), 3. Content type (with options for 'Executive summary', 'Expert briefing', and 'Graphic analysis'), and 4. Refine By Country (with an alphabetical list of countries).
